America's SBDC Iowa Client's National Documentary TV Series has been Nominated for a Synopsis TV Award in Three Categories

The FarmHer series, produced by RFD-TV, has been nominated for Best Reality Series

AMES, Iowa – America's SBDC Iowa is pleased to announce that one of its clients, FarmHer, Inc. of Grimes, founded by Marji Guyler-Alaniz, has had its new documentary RFD-TV series "FarmHer" nominated for a Synopsis TV Award as Best Reality Series in three different categories: Family-Focused, Food/Lifestyle, and Documentary. Since September 2016 the FarmHer series, produced by RFD-TV, has been showing viewers the lives of many diverse agricultural women, in order to highlight the importance of women in agriculture.

Mid Iowa SBDC Regional Director Christina Moffatt says, "It has been such an honor to work with Marji and watch her continued success through the FarmHer television show."

For more detailed information on this national nomination, read the RFD-TV press release at <http://farmher.zenfolio.com/cynopsis.pdf>. More information about FarmHer can be found at www.farmher.com and <https://www.facebook.com/farmher1>.
