

FREE AND DISCOUNTED PRODUCTS FOR SMALL BUSINESSES

Slack, together with GoDaddy, is offering a 25% discount off upgrades to standard or plus paid plans. For the next month, the discount on new accounts and account upgrades is available for joint customers of Slack and GoDaddy.

Salesforce has created a relief fund that will provide $10,000 grants to small businesses as well as free 90 day access to Salesforce Essentials

Send online invitations for virtual events by email or text message. Stay connected by hosting a virtual party or sending a free ecard for any occasion. For small businesses and nonprofits we are providing a free year of our Evite Pro subscription.

We are giving away $5,000 in fee-free gift card sales to help small businesses all around the world survive the crisis. Stay virtually open and sell gift cards for your products and services online and get paid in full, instantly.

Rocket Lawyer supports small businesses with a free online Coronavirus Legal Center. A one-stop legal resource that provides no-cost attorney Q&A, legal documents and critical information to help business owners navigate this crisis.

From large metro areas to more rural cities, Voice Nation offers industry leading call answering nationwide. Voice nation is currently offering a 15% discount to small businesses.

Constant Contact launched a Small Business Support Kit that you can share with your small business members and clients that includes free resources, tailored to their industries, and new tools to find ways to help them protect their businesses.

Zenefits providing free access to our Payroll and Employee Wellbeing products for new and existing customers and we're actively updating the features in our PTO, payroll and reporting to keep in step with emerging relief packages.

CashFlowTool has temporarily lowered our prices for new customers from $63 to $42 for the pro plan.

Quickbooks is offering a 30 day free trial and an ongoing 30% discount for quickbooks online accounting software

Google is donating more than $800 million to support small businesses, health organizations, governments, and health workers impacted by Covid-19. The amount includes $340 million in Google Ads credits for small and midsize businesses with active accounts in the past year.

1Password is offering its 1Password Business service free to small-business owners for six months, so your remote team can securely share passwords and create custom groups, vaults, and permissions.

Box, a cloud-storage app, is offering a free 90-day trial (you can cancel anytime, no strings attached) during the crisis to help you store and share your documents online.

Shopify, the e-commerce platform, is offering an extended 90-day trial for new customers. For those of you currently on a 14-day trial, you can extend it at no charge to 90 days.

Business Warrior, the software platform for small businesses, is offering 12 months' free access to its software and support, including personalized recommendations to drive new customers and improve profitability during this uncertain time.